

North Liberty Rezoning Process

Major Milestones	Approximate Timeline
Developer consults with staff	Pre-submission
Developer coordinates good neighbor mailing	Start of Process
Developer and staff hold good neighbor meeting	Week 2
Developer submits materials to city	Week 2-3
Staff reviews materials and meets informally	Week 3-4
Staff prepares and mails preliminary report to developer	Week 3-4
Developer submits corrected/modified materials	Week 6
Staff reviews corrected materials, and prepares report for Planning Commission	Week 6
Planning Commission meets and makes recommendation to City Council	Week 7-8
City Council meets, holds public hearing, and may approve 1 st required reading	Week 8-10
City Council meets and approves 2 nd reading	Week 10-12
City Council meets and approves 3 rd reading	Week 12-14
City publishes rezoning = process final	Week 13-15

Please note that this exhibit represents only a summarized approximation of the actual process, and the city is not obligated to ensure conformance with it. Importantly, Council is most concerned with making well-informed decisions, and may continue their deliberations over more than one meeting.