Ms. Tracey Mulcahey
City of North Liberty
PO Box 77
North Liberty, Iowa 52317-0077

Dear Ms. Mulcahey:

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that, on or about December 15, 2011, Mediacom will be implementing the following rate adjustments:¹

Product:	Old Rate:	New Rate:	Net Change:
Broadcast Basic	$ 27.95	$ 29.95	$ 2.00
Family Cable	$ 65.95	$ 68.95	$ 3.00
Family Cable with Digital 1 Star	$ 79.40	$ 79.95	$ 0.55
Cinemax	$ 10.95	$ 12.95	$ 2.00
Showtime	$ 10.95	$ 12.95	$ 2.00
Digital Plus	$ 12.00	$ 14.00	$ 2.00
Wireless Home Networking	$ 2.95	$ 3.95	$ 1.00
Paperless Bill Credit	$ 1.00 Bill Credit	Eliminated	Credit No Longer Available

The decision to make price adjustments is always a difficult one. As our Nation struggles to pull itself out of what has been called the Great Recession, we recognize that these are challenging times for the hardworking men and women living in the communities that we serve. While we strive to keep expenses in check, there are some costs that we are simply unable to control. Our programming expenses, particularly with respect to broadcast television channels and live sports content, are escalating at a pace well in excess of inflation.

The fees we pay to retransmit local broadcast stations like ABC, CBS, FOX and NBC are by far our fastest growing programming cost component. Outdated federal laws give the local broadcast stations monopoly power over network and syndicated programming within their respective market areas. Over the past few years, many broadcasters have used their monopoly powers to demand 100%, 200% and even 300% rate increases during contract negotiations. This has driven up cable and satellite rates and forced American consumers to pay billions of dollars for "free" over-the-air television.

¹ Customers currently on promotional rates will not receive this rate change until the expiration of their respective promotional period.

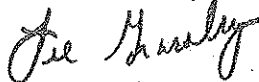

The problems with sports programming are equally as alarming. One look at the skyrocketing rights fees announced with recent deals and it is easy to see that the marketplace for live televised sports is out of control. Fox and Telemundo bought the rights to broadcast the 2018 and 2022 World Cup in the U.S for $1 billion. Comcast/NBC Universal agreed to pay $4.38 billion to televise four Olympic Games through 2020. ESPN renewed its rights deal with the NFL for Monday Night Football, agreeing to pay over $15 billion for eight years, or 70% more than it currently pays. These are just few examples of the unrestrained spending that has become the hallmark of the sports programming business.

Contrary to public perception, cable companies are reluctant to raise video prices because when we do, we lose subscribers. Mediacom does not make more money when we raise video rates, since we remit virtually every penny of the increase on to the programmers. In fact, over the last three years, our programming cost increases were more than double our video revenue increases.

Since the programming community has been unwilling to exercise even the slightest measure of self-restraint when it comes to reigning in their spending or increasing their price demands, Mediacom has taken the fight to Washington. We have asked the Federal Communications Commission and Members of Congress to protect senior citizens, low-income households and rural residents from practices that are rendering pay television unaffordable for more and more Americans. We invite the leaders of your community to do the same.

Despite the business challenges we face, Mediacom appreciates the opportunity to continue to serve your community's telecommunications needs. If you have any questions, please contact me directly at 319-268-5033 or lgrassley@mediacomcc.com.

Yours sincerely,

Lee Grassley

Maher let us know the Business High Speed Plan started last week. And Maher said that drop crews were currently working on Forever Green Rd and 12th Ave followed by cleanup crews.

Franchise and Community Partnership Agreements Discussion

Caplinger said that the community partnership agreements such as Prime Time, live stream from the NLTV office and franchise payments are under discussion. The City Attorney and the City Administrator are now involved and Caplinger said that they hope to come back by spring time with an agreement. Hoffman wanted to know what is your basis. Caplinger said the franchise agreement is the basis regarding the quarterly payments, the way the signal goes out and NLTV's lineup. Caplinger stated that South Slope moved us to channel 268. There has been a public service announcement to let South Slope customers know about this. Hoffman asked if Caplinger found out what other communities have done regarding the franchise agreement. Caplinger said that the City Attorney is looking into that. Caplinger, the City Attorney and the City Administrator are going to meet after Thanksgiving to discuss and then they will be meeting with South Slope after New Year's.

Commissioners' comments.

Hoffman reminded everyone that elections were tomorrow and to remember to vote.

Telecommunications staff report.

Caplinger thanked South Slope who was going to be installing the Business Package which will be faster and has a stronger signal. Caplinger said that there was a lot going on this month and thru the end of the year.

a. Council Chambers Relocation

Caplinger then handed it over to Nick Bergus because he and Erika Harper worked on the new Council Chambers. Bergus said that there were lots of problems with the old facility that they learned from. There are microphones in the back for the audience in case someone who is speaking doesn't come up to the lectern. Bergus said they're also speakers in the ceiling for the audience to hear the councilors easier. Their intention was to eliminate paper as much as possible which the iPads help with. Bergus said that there was also a computer in the lectern so people can bring in PowerPoint presentations or maps or whatever else was needed. They plan on being in the current Chambers for six to ten years so they wanted to make sure it was done right. Bergus also stated that due to the extra room they are able to fit more people up front. Caplinger said that we are one of the first to make some of these changes and that the Board of Supervisors is also looking into the iPads. Caplinger also said that Bergus and Harper wrote an article for a trade magazine that will provide more information for other cities and counties. Wagner wanted to know what other North Liberty committees thought, ones who had to make or take more notes. Caplinger said that notepads are still used by some, some write on the iPad or some use a keypad. People are figuring out what works best for them and she is still working through a lot of questions from the users.

b. Channel Move

Caplinger wanted to remind everyone that South Slope moved NLTV to channel 268 and they are still on channel 5 through Mediacom. Wagner asked if this channel was offered to everyone or if it was on a special tier or package. Caplinger said it was offered to everyone and Swick stated that was correct also.
