

North Liberty Hall of Fame Award

The City of North Liberty has developed a Community Hall of Fame Award. The purpose of such is to recognize individuals who have provided extraordinary public service and dedication to the city and its citizens. Persons who are eligible must live, work or provide services directly to North Liberty citizens.

Selection Criteria:

Selection will be based on service rendered to the community. This includes services based on material contributions as well as personal public service contributions.

Special consideration will be given to those persons who have demonstrated a high level of volunteer leadership.

Services provided by participation in volunteer organizations and local groups are also important.

Longevity in public service is important but not totally compelling in determining the receipt of this award.

Community impact is the final criteria in determining the worthiness of a person receiving this award.

A person must have demonstrated a high degree of personal commitment and personal sacrifice to the community.

Procedure:

Complete this form. Include supportive information on additional sheet(s) describing how your nominee has met the above criteria.

Submit by October 31, 2016 to:
