

Code of Conduct

By boarding the North Liberty AM/PM Commute shuttle bus, you agree to abide by the City's Code of Conduct.

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure the safety and comfort of passengers, providers, and of the general public. Violent, illegal, disrespectful behavior, demeaning language, yelling, or other seriously disruptive conduct is not permitted. This extends to service animals as well. The City of North Liberty may deny, suspend, or revoke ridership privileges, and Express Midwest staff may refuse service, to any persons who engage in such conduct.

Notwithstanding the above, transit services will not be refused to an individual with disabilities solely because the individual's disability results in an appearance or involuntary behavior (sounds or actions) that may offend, annoy, or inconvenience staff, providers, or partners.

When a person has engaged in behavior that violates this Code of Conduct, Express Midwest staff will inform the City of North Liberty Transit Coordinator of the circumstances and events surrounding that behavior. City staff will evaluate on a case-by-case basis what corrective action, if any, is warranted. Such action may range from warnings, suspension, or to permanent revocation of the offending person's ridership privileges.
